

FEEL TIRED, ACHY, LAZY, "DOPEY," SORE AND GOOD-FOR NOTHING?

YOUR BLOOD AND SYSTEM NEED A RENOVATING. IT'S WONDERFUL THE WAY ROOT JUICE CLEANS AND BUILDS UP THE WHOLE BODY. GUARANTEED.

Your blood's as thick as the proverbial "molasses in January" and it's full of impurities that have been collecting all winter. No wonder you feel "all in," tired, lazy, achy, "dopey." Every organ in your body is half asleep. Your system is clogged up with an accumulation of filth that makes good health impossible.

What you need is a thorough, top-to-bottom house cleaning and a tonic to build you up—something to put new vim, new force, "fire," "pep" and "ginger" into you. "Ho, Ho, Hum! I Surely Need That You need something ROOT JUICE to brace me up."

that will strengthen your stomach, sharpen up our appetite and improve your digestion, something to stir up your lazy liver and get your bowels busy; something that gets into your blood and purifies it, cleans it out and makes it rich, something that acts on the kidneys, too, because they are the filters of the blood and may cause a slight of trouble for you if they get balky. That's why you need that wonderful blood purifying, system tonic, ROOT JUICE.

You never saw a medicine work like it in all your life. It's made from a new, scientific combination of Nature's own roots, herbs, leaves and barks and its splendid influence is felt by practically every vital organ in the body.

For stomach trouble, rheumatism, weak back, weak kidneys and urinary troubles, and especially for old folks, it is simply unequalled. It will have you feeling like a new person in a week.

You just try one bottle of it, and if you can't say it's the finest thing you ever tried in all your life take the empty bottle back and get your money. It's got to give results. Don't let any scheming, unreliable druggist palm off an imitation on you. There's only one genuine ROOT JUICE and nothing "just as good" or "almost like it."

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

Slang.

Slang is a verbal vice. It is vile even unto villany. It taints. It is often used by young people who regard it as an evidence of smartness, while, in fact it is in direct evidence to the reverse. It pollutes. A young girl's character is questioned by a stranger when he hears her use slang. It encourages familiarity. It leads by direct route to wrong doing, shame and remorse. A youth who uses slang is not trusted by men who give employment. The ability and repute of the young man are at once in question. No employer wants a slang boy or girl about his store or office. They are not the kind of people to have about the safe and till. In the great cities, where the characters of people are known by their deportment and use of language as a book is known by its cover and contents, the slangy youth or maiden is at once set down as from some frogpond district. It is not regarded as smart. It is about as much evidence of smartness as wearing one's pants in his boots and adopting a swagger. Such a person is a butt of ridicule. So is a slangy person.

The Old Time Neighbor.

The Chicago Tribune is inquiring what has become of the "old time neighbor" and the St. Paul Pioneer Press remarks that the old time neighbor has passed into tradition. This leads one of our valued exchanges to say—truthfully too: "Not so, brothers."

"In a thousand country towns in the middle west, all sorrow with the unfortunate, rejoice with the favored, mourn with them that mourn. One housewife runs over to the neighbors to borrow a cup of flour when the exigencies of baking have caught her with depleted flour bin. The sick have flowers and attention, and volunteers to 'set up' with them. Those who celebrate birthday or wedding anniversaries have 'surprise parties' come in on them, bringing refreshments and neighborly cheer.

"And in the country—bless you! If you think the old-time neighbor has 'passed' just have central connect you with a country line and listen to the neighbors talk.

"No, thank the Lord, the 'neighbor' has not passed into the limbo of forgotten things—not yet. His cheery word is daily in our ears. Whether he knows it or not, he is practicing real christianity, the highest teaching of the Nazarene.

"It makes us glad we do not live in a city like Chicago, where the homely virtues are to a great extent crowded out and forgotten.

"The country town is a pretty good place to live after all."

Habit Forming.

"Habit forming" is the subject of an interesting page in a house organ of one of the large manufacturing institutions of the country. For instance, here are some rules set forth for those who would form new and better habits:

1. Make good resolutions intelligently and record them.
2. Accumulate all circumstances which will reinforce your resolutions.
3. Keep away from temptation.
4. Keep away from associates who discourage you.
5. Put yourself in conditions that encourages the new way.
6. Seize the first opportunity to act on resolutions you make.
7. Make engagements incompatible with the old way.
8. Never suffer an exception to occur until the new habit is securely rooted in your life.
9. Remember, until the new habit is fixed, each lapse makes it more difficult.

These rules are the result of the experiences of those who have been successful. They are designed to help others in the determination to do better. We can all be benefited so better. We can all be benefited so better.

"It is a good thing," says a Chinese proverb, "for a man to get back of his own tea cup." It is the only thing; the home is the center of the universe and the sum of all true pleasures, is the home-coming. Never fear the man that is in a hurry, when his work is done, to get home; he will neither rob you nor murder you, nor do any seriously evil thing, this you may depend on. Such a man is no longer, but is an intelligent, industrious citizen.

True riches do not consist altogether of money. A man may be rich and not have a dime in his pocket, or even a pocket in which to carry a dime if he had it. A happy disposition and a sound body is worth more than pure gold, and a clear head and good parentage more than any amount of money that can be named. The magnitude of one's bank account is an exceedingly poor means by which to determine the genuineness and value of one's possessions.

At Easter we should feel our very hearts budding and blossoming with new loves, new hopes and new determinations to realize the joyfulness of the Christian spring.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS

It is now stated on good authority that Hon. Wade H. Bronson, of Williamson, will be the standard bearer on the democratic ticket for Congress in the fifth district. He is a clean cut Democrat pure and simple. As a lawyer he measures up to the biggest, and is an orator of unsurpassed ability.

As an inducement for Mr. Bronson to enter the race for Congress he is assured that W. J. Bryan will make at least three speeches in his behalf during the campaign. One at Bluefield, one at Williamson and one at Huntington.

Acting upon the advice of J. T. Lawson, court police of Wise-co., Va., who made the identification, Sheriff Don Chafin arrested B. F. Cornwell, alias B. F. Collins, at Monitor, on a charge of murder. While the crime was committed in Kentucky, and Lawson did not have requisition papers, Cornwell submitted quietly to arrest and agreed to go back and stand trial without any legal red tape. A $450 reward was offered for his arrest.

Within the last three years alone, the West Virginia miners have brought from the bowels of the earth 100,000 more cubic yards than was contained in the original Panama estimate. Nobody has ever written magazine or Sunday supplement feature articles of how the dirt—or coal, rather—has been flying in West Virginia. This is the first time the attention of the public has ever been called to it.

Walton Brumfield, one of the best known contractors of this section, wherein he had made his home and business headquarters for many years, was the victim of a sad accident on Main Island Creek Thursday morning, from the effects of which he died about thirty minutes later. Mr. Brumfield was engaged on a timber contract and was directing a slip of logs at the time of the accident. One of the logs struck a small tree and snapped it off, and it fell squarely upon the unfortunate man's head, crushing his skull and breaking his neck—Logan Democrat.

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death. Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken."

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving women's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.
